this, and if there were some way that we could guarantee that they would be able to...they would paying the tax on it. That was the first amendment that I had, that I withdrew, that would have them be a receiver...have a fee to be a receiver, and then be required to pay the taxes by virtue of being a receiver of wines. But I still do believe that, for those of us who are concerned about young people, and thought that this was a bill that at least partly dealt with that, that this amendment is necessary, and if it is so important to deal with this issue now, even though we know that the...there may be implications in terms of our citizens being able to have access, then I think that we should be dealing with all the aspects of it and not just one. And I certainly think that this is an important part of it and believe that it warrants us returning the bill to Select File. Thank you.

SPEAKER KRISTENSEN: Senator Hilgert.

SENATOR HILGERT: Thank you, Mr. Speaker, members. I have a question for Senator Janssen. You had, Senator, you had spoken that some of these wines are available if some of these individuals would just contact the wholesaler in Nebraska, and they would be able to get these wines for them? Is that correct?

SENATOR JANSSEN: Well, I would go to a retail first,...

SENATOR HILGERT: Yeah, okay.

SENATOR JANSSEN: ...Senator, and ask him if he would contact his distributor to see if he could get that for him. That's the way you're supposed to go.

SENATOR HILGERT: And then it should be able to, that should be able to be accomplished?

SENATOR JANSSEN: Well, I would...I would think so.

SENATOR HILGERT: Well, again, this is the...we have a, and probably everyone got a copy of these. I've got a list of...I believe they're retailers here, or distributors, and...saying
